

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT DISTRICT OF NEVADA

DAMON R. JOHNSON,

Plaintiff

Case No. 2:21-cv-00306-APG-DJA

NEVADA DEPT OF CORRECTIONS,

Defendant

SCREENING ORDER

Plaintiff Damon R. Johnson, who was formerly incarcerated in the custody of the Nevada Department of Corrections (NDOC), has submitted a civil rights complaint under 42 U.S.C. § 1915A. ECF No. 1. He has also submitted an application to proceed in forma pauperis for prisoners (ECF No. 3) and an application to proceed without having to prepay fees or costs for prisoners (ECF No. 7). As Johnson is no longer incarcerated, I deny his motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis for prisoners (ECF No. 3) as moot. I defer decision on Johnson's application to proceed without having to prepay fees or costs for non-prisoners. I now screen the complaint under 28 U.S.C. § 1915A.

I. SCREENING STANDARD

Federal courts must conduct a preliminary screening in any case in which a prisoner seeks redress from a governmental entity or officer or employee of a governmental entity. See 28 U.S.C. § 1915A(a). In its review, the court must identify any cognizable claims and dismiss any claims that are frivolous, malicious, fail to state a claim upon which relief may be granted or seek monetary relief from a defendant who is immune from such relief. See 28 U.S.C. § 1915A(b)(1),(2). Pro se pleadings, however, must be liberally construed. Balistreri v. Pacifica Police Dep’t, 901 F.2d 696, 699 (9th Cir. 1990). To state a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, a

1 plaintiff must allege two essential elements: (1) the violation of a right secured by the 2 Constitution or laws of the United States, and (2) that the alleged violation was committed by a 3 person acting under color of state law. See West v. Atkins, 487 U.S. 42, 48 (1988).

4 In addition to the screening requirements under § 1915A, the Prison Litigation Reform 5 Act (PLRA) requires a federal court to dismiss a prisoner's claim, if "the allegation of poverty is 6 untrue," or if the action "is frivolous or malicious, fails to state a claim on which relief may be 7 granted, or seeks monetary relief against a defendant who is immune from such relief." 28 8 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2). Dismissal of a complaint for failure to state a claim upon which relief can 9 be granted is provided for in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 12(b)(6), and the court applies the 10 same standard under § 1915 when reviewing the adequacy of a complaint or an amended 11 complaint. When a court dismisses a complaint under § 1915(e), the plaintiff should be given 12 leave to amend the complaint with directions as to curing its deficiencies, unless it is clear from 13 the face of the complaint that the deficiencies could not be cured by amendment. See Cato v.
 14 United States, 70 F.3d 1103, 1106 (9th Cir. 1995).

15 Review under Rule 12(b)(6) is essentially a ruling on a question of law. See Chappel v.
 16 Lab. Corp. of America, 232 F.3d 719, 723 (9th Cir. 2000). Dismissal for failure to state a claim 17 is proper only if it is clear that the plaintiff cannot prove any set of facts in support of the claim 18 that would entitle him or her to relief. See Morley v. Walker, 175 F.3d 756, 759 (9th Cir. 1999).
 19 In making this determination, the court takes as true all allegations of material fact stated in the 20 complaint, and the court construes them in the light most favorable to the plaintiff. See Warshaw 21 v. Xoma Corp., 74 F.3d 955, 957 (9th Cir. 1996). Allegations of a pro se complainant are held to 22 less stringent standards than formal pleadings drafted by lawyers. See Hughes v. Rowe, 449 U.S.
 23 5, 9 (1980). While the standard under Rule 12(b)(6) does not require detailed factual allegations,

1 a plaintiff must provide more than mere labels and conclusions. Bell Atlantic Corp. v. Twombly, 2 550 U.S. 544, 555 (2007). A formulaic recitation of the elements of a cause of action is 3 insufficient. Id.

4       A reviewing court should “begin by identifying pleadings [allegations] that, because they 5 are no more than mere conclusions, are not entitled to the assumption of truth.” Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 6 556 U.S. 662, 679 (2009). “While legal conclusions can provide the framework of a complaint,
 7 they must be supported with factual allegations.” Id. “When there are well-pleaded factual 8 allegations, a court should assume their veracity and then determine whether they plausibly give 9 rise to an entitlement to relief.” Id. “Determining whether a complaint states a plausible claim 10 for relief . . . [is] a context-specific task that requires the reviewing court to draw on its judicial 11 experience and common sense.” Id.

12       All or part of a complaint filed by a prisoner may be dismissed sua sponte if the 13 prisoner’s claims lack an arguable basis either in law or in fact. This includes claims based on 14 legal conclusions that are untenable (e.g., claims against defendants who are immune from suit 15 or claims of infringement of a legal interest which clearly does not exist), as well as claims based 16 on fanciful factual allegations (e.g., fantastic or delusional scenarios). See Neitzke v. Williams, 17 490 U.S. 319, 327-28 (1989); see also McKeever v. Block, 932 F.2d 795, 798 (9th Cir. 1991).

18 II. SCREENING OF COMPLAINT

19       Johnson sues NDOC,<sup>1</sup> A.G. Aaron Ford, Isidro Bacca, and Charles Daniels for events 20 that took place while he was incarcerated at Warm Springs Correctional Center. ECF No. 1-1 at 21

22       <sup>1</sup> I dismiss with prejudice all claims against NDOC because it is an arm of the State of 23 Nevada and is not a “person” for purposes of 42 U.S.C. § 1983, and amendment would be futile.
See Doe v. Lawrence Livermore Nat. Lab., 131 F.3d 836, 839 (9th Cir. 1997); Black v. Nevada
Dep’t of Corr., 2:09-cv-2343-PMP-LRL, 2010 WL 2545760, *2 (D. Nev. June 21, 2010).

1 1. He brings three counts and seeks injunctive and monetary relief.

2       The complaint alleges the following: Johnson wrote to warden Bacca because the law 3 librarian was refusing to make legal copies for his civil cases. Bacca told Johnson that he could 4 not sue a casino while in custody, and that he would not be given legal copies for his case.
5 Johnson was threatened by NDOC staff not to go to the law library, and he was placed in the 6 solitary/red tag unit. For two weeks, Johnson did not receive any outdoor time.

7       Based on these allegations Johnson claims that his Eighth Amendment rights were 8 violated. The complaint is not entirely clear, but it appears that Johnson is bringing a conditions-9 of-confinement claim based on the allegation that he did not receive any outdoor recreation time 10 for two weeks. In his request for relief, he specifically requests damages for the failure to 11 provide him “appropriate amounts of fresh air and recreation to exercise.”

12       A. Eighth Amendment

13       The Ninth Circuit has recognized that “[d]eprivation of outdoor exercise violates the 14 Eighth Amendment rights of inmates confined to continuous and long-term segregation.” Keenan
15 v. Hall, 83 F.3d 1083, 1089 (9th Cir. 1996). However, “a temporary denial of outdoor exercise 16 with no medical effects is not a substantial deprivation.” May v. Baldwin, 109 F.3d 557, 565 (9th 17 Cir. 1997). Prison officials may restrict outdoor exercise on the basis of weather, unusual 18 circumstances, or disciplinary needs. See Spain v. Procunier, 600 F.2d 189, 199 (9th Cir. 1979).
19 “The cost or inconvenience of providing adequate [exercise] facilities[, however,] is not a 20 defense to the imposition of a cruel punishment.” Id. at 200.

21       Johnson fails to state a colorable Eighth Amendment claim. The allegation that Johnson 22 did not receive any outdoor recreation time for two weeks, without more, is not a sufficient 23 deprivation to give rise to a constitutional claim. As such, I dismiss this claim. However, as

1 Johnson is proceeding pro se, and it is not entirely clear from the complaint what claim Johnson
2 is trying to bring, I dismiss this claim without prejudice and with leave to amend.

3       B. Supervisory Liability

4       It appears that Johnson is attempting to bring claims against defendants Ford and Daniels 5 based solely on their supervisory positions. A defendant is liable under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 “only 6 upon a showing of personal participation by the defendant.” Taylor v. List, 880 F.2d 1040, 1045 7 (9th Cir. 1989). “A supervisor is only liable for constitutional violations of his subordinates if 8 the supervisor participated in or directed the violations, or knew of the violations and failed to 9 act to prevent them. There is no respondeat superior liability under [§]1983.” Id.; see also 10 Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. 662, 676 (2009) (holding that “[b]ecause vicarious liability is 11 inapplicable to Bivens and § 1983 suits, a plaintiff must plead that each Government-official 12 defendant, through the official’s own individual actions, has violated the Constitution”).

13       Accordingly, if Johnson chooses to file an amended complaint, he must allege facts 14 supporting each defendant’s personal participation in any alleged constitutional deprivations.

15       III. LEAVE TO AMEND

16       I grant Johnson leave to file an amended complaint to cure the deficiencies of the 17 complaint. If he chooses to file an amended complaint, I advise him that an amended complaint 18 supersedes (replaces) the original complaint and, thus, the amended complaint must be complete 19 in itself. See Hal Roach Studios, Inc. v. Richard Feiner & Co., Inc., 896 F.2d 1542, 1546 (9th 20 Cir. 1989) (holding that “[t]he fact that a party was named in the original complaint is irrelevant; 21 an amended pleading supersedes the original”); see also Lacey v. Maricopa Cnty., 693 F.3d 896, 22 928 (9th Cir. 2012) (holding that for claims dismissed with prejudice, a plaintiff is not required 23 to reallege such claims in a subsequent amended complaint to preserve them for appeal).

1 Johnson's amended complaint must contain all claims, defendants, and factual allegations that he 2 wishes to pursue in this lawsuit. Johnson should file the amended complaint on this court's 3 approved prisoner civil rights form, and it must be entitled "First Amended Complaint."

4 If Johnson chooses to file an amended complaint curing the deficiencies as outlined in this 5 order, he must file the amended complaint by November 4, 2021. If Johnson chooses not to file 6 an amended complaint curing the stated deficiencies, this action will be dismissed with prejudice 7 for failure to state a claim.

8 IV. CONCLUSION

9 I therefore order that Johnson's application to proceed in forma pauperis for prisoners 10 (ECF No. 3) is denied as moot.

11 I further order that I defer decision on Johnson's application to proceed without 12 prepaying costs and fees for non-prisoners (ECF No. 7).

13 I further order the Clerk of the Court to file Johnson's complaint (ECF No. 1-1) and send 14 him a courtesy copy of the complaint.

15 I further order that Johnson's conditions-of-confinement claim is dismissed without 16 prejudice and with leave to amend.

17 I further order that the Nevada Dept. of Corrections is dismissed from this case with 18 prejudice, as amendment would be futile.

19 I further order that defendants Ford, Bacca, and Daniels are dismissed from this case 20 without prejudice.

21 I further order that, if Johnson chooses to file an amended complaint curing the 22 deficiencies of the complaint as outlined in this order, he must file the amended complaint by 23 November 4, 2021.

1 I further order the Clerk of Court to send to Johnson the approved form for filing a 2 § 1983 complaint and instructions for the same. If Johnson chooses to file an amended
3 complaint, he should use the approved form and he will write the words “First Amended” above 4 the words “Civil Rights Complaint” in the caption.

5 I further order that, if Johnson fails to file an amended complaint curing the deficiencies 6 outlined in this order by November 4, 2021, I will dismiss this action with prejudice for failure to 7 state a claim.

8 DATED THIS 24th day of September 2021.
